Filled single-family house lot located in East End, offering a great opportunity to build a home or hold as a long-term investment. Positioned in a quiet residential area with convenient access to the main road, the property is just minutes from everyday amenities including grocery stores, restaurants, and beaches. Nearby highlights include Morritt's Resort, Jacques Scott, Foster's Express, Subway, and several local dining options. East End continues to attract interest for its relaxed atmosphere, coastal surroundings, and growing community, making this an excellent option for both homeowners and investors looking for value and future potential in the Eastern districts.
