This beautifully designed one-bedroom home sits within the quiet, gated community of Lantern Point in Old Prospect Point. It offers a blend of comfort, style, and easy island living. Every detail has been thoughtfully considered, combining a modern, contemporary feel with a warm and welcoming atmosphere. A soft, neutral palette and layered textures create a sense of calm, while smart design makes the most of every space, including a custom pantry that adds both function and charm. The open-plan kitchen connects seamlessly with the living area and opens to a private patio. Surrounded by tropical landscaping, the patio features two separate seating areas, perfect for morning coffee or relaxed evening dinners. The spacious bedroom, set just off the main living area, provides a peaceful retreat. A hallway with double closets leads to a newly renovated bathroom with a walk-in rain shower, textured tilework, and matte black finishes for a modern touch. Residents at Lantern Point enjoy resort-style amenities including two pools, a gym, a tennis court, and a stylish clubhouse, all surrounded by landscaped gardens. Grand Harbour is only a short walk away for dining, shopping, and everyday essentials, and George Town is just a 15-minute drive. This home is move-in ready and designed for easy, enjoyable island living.
